

RULES AND REGULATIONS
MISS WASHINGTON JOB'S DAUGHTER

ARTICLE I TITLE

Section 1.

- (a) The Daughter selected shall be known as Miss Washington Job's Daughter.

ARTICLE II OBJECT

Section 1.

- (a) Miss Washington Job's Daughter is a representative of Job's Daughters in Washington State for the purpose of promoting the interest, welfare and growth of the Order by working closely with the Grand Bethel of Washington and the Grand Guardian Council.

ARTICLE III SUPERVISION

Section 1.

- (a) Miss Washington Job's Daughter shall be under the general supervision of the Grand Guardian; however, the Chairman of the Miss Washington Job's Daughter Committee shall provide guidance and shall approve all activities. (2003)

ARTICLE IV
QUALIFICATIONS

Section 1.

- (a) Miss Washington Job's Daughter shall be a young woman who possesses a thorough knowledge of the Order, dignity, poise, charm, good manners, and that intangible quality called personality. She must be able to meet the public, speak extemporaneously and represent the Order with dignity and youthful charm.

ARTICLE V ELIGIBILITY

Section 1.

- (a) A Daughter must be:
- (1) A member in good standing in a Bethel under the jurisdiction of the Grand Guardian Council of Washington.
 - (2) At least sixteen (16) years of age at the time of the Miss Washington Job's Daughter Pageant. (1993)
- (b) A consent form shall be signed by each Daughter and her parent(s) or legal guardian(s).
- (c) A current or former Miss Washington Job's Daughter is not eligible to compete in future Miss Washington Job's Daughter Pageants.
- (d) A Daughter may not serve in the position of Miss Washington Job's Daughter and Grand Bethel Honored Queen concurrently. (2001)

ARTICLE VI SELECTION

Section 1. General

- (a) Any Daughter meeting the eligibility standards shall have the right to participate in a preliminary written examination.
- (b) The administration, production and direction of the preliminary competition and final pageant are the responsibility of the Miss Washington Job's Daughter Pageant Committee.
- (c) Pageant judges will be designated for each of the requirements listed below.

Section 2. Preliminary Competition

- (a) The Preliminary Competition will consist of a written examination covering the Ritual, By-laws, and Manual of Rules and Regulations of this Grand Guardian Council.
- (b) Each Daughter taking the examination shall pay a nominal application fee and provide a signed consent form.
- (c) The time of the examination will be set by the Miss Washington Job's Daughter Committee with the approval of the Grand Guardian. In the event of an emergency, the Grand Guardian may set an alternate time. (2001)
- (d) If more than thirty (30) Daughters participate in the Preliminary Competition, the Daughters with the top thirty (30) scores will be invited in writing to participate in the Final Pageant.

Section 3. Final Pageant

- (a) Written Test
 - (1) The test will consist of a written examination based on a general knowledge of the IOJD, the Ritual, the Constitution and Bylaws and the Book of Ceremonies. Completed test papers will be identified only by an assigned number, not by a contestant's name or Bethel. (2002)
- (b) Ritual Recitation (oral)
 - (1) The recitation will be given in Bethel robe and complete regalia.
 - (2) Each Daughter will recite a messenger's initiation lecture as selected by the Pageant Committee. Judging will be on accuracy and presentation.
 - (3) Robe with white cord and other official regalia will be inspected, for conformity to rules and regulations, either before or after the recitation.
- (c) Interview
 - (1) Each contestant will have a private interview with a panel of Pageant judges.
 - (2) Judges will have received a fact sheet on each contestant giving the age, education, training, interest, ambitions, and Job's Daughter achievements.
 - (3) Each Daughter will be judged on her personality, diction, sincerity, manners, adaptability to the situation and the general impression she makes.
- (d) Stage Appearance
 - (1) The dress will be an evening gown, in accordance with the Washington State Dress Code as published by the Grand Guardian. (1996)
 - (2) Judging will encompass the total picture the contestant presents; considering her personality, posture, poise, grace of movement, appropriate hair style and personal grooming.
 - (3) Semi-finalists will be judged not only on the response to a question but on the overall impression the contestant makes as she responds.

(e) Final Score

(1) The final score for the Miss Washington Job's Daughter competition will be as follows: There are five parts to the competition. The contestant with the highest number of total points from the following competitions will be Miss Washington Job's Daughter.

- a. Final Written Test – 22.5%
- b. Personal Interview – 22.5%
- c. Oral Ritual Competition – 22.5%
- d. Stage Appearance/Evening Interview with the Master/Mistress of Ceremonies – 22.5%
- e. The Final Question – 10%

The score from the preliminary written test will be used if there is a tie for Miss Washington Job's Daughter. (2007)

Section 4. Disbursements.

(a) Miss Washington Job's Daughter shall receive a maximum seven hundred and fifty dollar ($750.00) scholarship. The first runner-up shall receive a maximum five hundred dollar ($500.00) scholarship. The participant with the highest dollar volume of program ad donations shall receive a maximum five hundred dollar ($500.00) scholarship. The participant with the highest score on the final written test shall receive a maximum two hundred and fifty dollar ($250.00) scholarship. If additional monies are available, additional scholarships may be presented with the approval of the Miss Washington Job's Daughter Committee and Finance Committee. (2006)

(b) Applications for redemption of scholarships shall be received by the Pageant Committee no later than four (4) years from the date of award. Applicants shall provide proof of enrollment in a college or vocational course. (1996)

(c) Mileage shall be paid to Miss Washington Job's Daughter when attending Bethel Grand Visitations and authorized events as scheduled by the MWJD Director of Events and approved by the Miss Washington Job's Daughter Committee Chairman. Mileage shall be reimbursed at a rate of fifteen cents ($.15) per mile or the current IRS Standard Mileage Rate for miles driven in service of charitable organizations, whichever is greater. (2008)

ARTICLE VII
REPRESENTATION
